Today's Gospel

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him. We have to do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" —which means Sent—. So he went and washed, and came back able to see. His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is," but others said, "No, he just looks like him." He said, "I am." So they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" He replied, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went there and washed and was able to see." And they said to him, "Where is he?"... (JN 9:1-41)

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

Prayer List:

Our elderly, sick, and shut-ins, especially, Christine Kunze, Terri Baldwin; Marie Kreiner, Mark Wever, Huy Nguyen, Sister Virginia Bieg. If you want to be on the prayer list, please let the priests know.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection:

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." (1 Samuel 16:7)
How often do we invest our time, talent, and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent, and treasure here on earth.

HOLY FATHER PRAYER INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH

Catholics in China We pray that the Church in China may persevere in its faithfulness to the Gospel and grow in unity.

Covid-19: Summary of restriction in the Archdiocese of St Louis as of March 18

- All public Masses are suspended until April 6.
 - All Catholic schools are closed until April 6.
 - All school extracurricular activities, including athletics, are canceled or postponed until April 6.
 - Lenten fish fries are to be drive-through, carry-out, or delivery only
 - In order to maintain continued operation of parishes and their missions, parishioners are encouraged to use online giving, drop off or mail their contributions to their own parishes.
 - Eucharistic adoration may continue, following guidelines of Centers for Disease Control and Prevention regarding numbers of people gathered.
 - Weddings and funerals are at the discretion of parish pastor. The archdiocese recommends limiting attendance to immediate family members only or rescheduling.
 - Baptisms are at the discretion of parish pastor Where possible, the archdiocese recommends that baptisms be conducted in a simple, private, individual ceremony.
 - Recommendations are to celebrate the sacrament of penance using a screen (anonymously) to ensure the health department's social distancing guidelines. If a penitent prefers to offer confession face to face, the chair should be placed approximately six feet apart. This may require holding confessions in a different location than usual.
 - Anointing of the sick may be administered by priests to people seriously ill or in danger of death. However, priests administering the sacrament need to be in good health.
 - All those administering sacraments to the elderly, sick or homebound need to follow proper protocols from the CDC for handwashing and use of masks by those infected and those who are administering.
 - All are encouraged to live-stream Masses celebrated at the Cathedral Basilica <http://cathedralstl.org/live/> at 8 am for weekday Mass and 10 am for Sunday Mass
- ### Please check: <https://youtu.be/hRACqPVLrNt> for Archbishop Carlson talks to all parishioners
- Allsup Entrepreneurship Academy:
Registration is now open for the 16th Allsup Entrepreneurship Academy which will be held July 27-31,2020 at Saint Louis University. The academy is open to all high school students. This camp provides the opportunity for students to develop their own business idea, meet and receive guidance from local entrepreneurs, and get a taste for the entrepreneurship scene in Saint Louis. The 2020 teen keynote is nationally-recognized entrepreneur, Lily Born, creator of the Kangaroo Cup, a tree-legged cup that won't tip over. For more information, please visit www.slu.edu/entrepreneurship or call 314-977-3850 or email laura.brugger@slu.edu. Generous scholarship are available.

Second Collection: We have a second collection on this Sunday for Catholic Relief Services. Please be generous!
