Today's Gospel: MT 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Prayer List:

Our elderly, sick, and shut-ins, especially, Christine Kunze, Terri Baldwin; Marie Kreiner, Mark Wever, Sister Virginia Bieg. If you want to be on the prayer list, please let the priests know.

Stewardship Reflection:

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" (Matthew 16:26)

St. Francis of Assisi once said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent, and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world

COVID-19 on face-coverings order

The Archdiocese of St. Louis would like to remind parishes and schools in St. Louis County of the expanded face-coverings order that now includes children age 5 years and older, and is strongly encouraged for children between the ages of 2 and 5 years old.

Eucharistic Ministers are required to use facial coverings when offering Holy Communion.

The archdiocesan communications office has received complaints from parishioners who decided not to receive Holy Communion because guidelines were not being followed, along with additional complaints regarding concerns for social-distancing and overall regard for protective measures at parishes. Please refer to the guidelines on <https://www.archstl.org/coronavirus> to ensure you and your staffs are adhering to all the guidelines and offering your parish communities the safest possible environment.

Second Collection:

We will have a Second Collection on next Sunday for Catholic University of America. Please be prepared!
