Today's Gospel: MT 22: 15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Give the Lord glory and honor.

World Mission Sunday:

Every year, something special happens on the next to last Sunday of October. World Mission Sunday Joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At mass that Sunday, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries, through prayers, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

In his Message for World Mission Sunday this year, Pope Francis asks us to respond to our Baptismal call to mission by saying, "Here I Am, Send Me." This is the mission that all Christians have received, and God gives us the grace to live it out wherever we may be.

As we pray and respond on World Mission Sunday here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's mission.

In a world where so much divided us, world Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission diocese.

Today we are "sent" out to witness to mission in the world through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world. As little as...

$25 helps support a catechist for a month in remote Latin America

$75 provides for the work of religious Sisters caring for orphaned children in Africa

$100 assists families in sending their children to schools in Asia

As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.

Second Collection:

We will have Second Collection on this Sunday for World Mission Sunday. Please be generous!
