Today's Gospel: MT 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with your entire mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Holy Father's Intention for November: Artificial Intelligence

We pray that the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.

Church Guidelines Leading up to the November Elections

•This important reminder is for all agencies, ministries, and representatives of the Archdiocese of St. Louis: The Catholic Church does not enter into supporting nor opposing either party or candidate; rather, we help inform our parishioners of Church teaching related to the issues to allow the faithful to make their own determination through thoughtful reflections around those teachings and what they believe is correct.

•The USCCB's updated version of Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility can be viewed in <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/faithful-citizenship/upload/forming-consciences-for-faithful-citizenship.pdf>. Any endorsement or opposition of a political party or candidate is in violation of the IRS ban on political campaign activity for 501(c)(3) exempt churches and charities.
