A Vocation View

We don't always recognize the voice of God. Spend time in silence regularly to listen to God's voice. God calls, keep an open ear.

Today's Gospel: Mk 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Prayer List:

Our elderly, sick, and shut-ins, especially, Christine Kunze, Terri Baldwin; Marie Kreiner, Mark Wever, Sister Virginia Bieg. If you want to be on the prayer list, please let the priests know.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection:

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."- Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Holy Father's Intention for January: Human Fraternity

May the Lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.

Notice:

Next Sunday, January 31, 2021, at all the Masses, we will bless candles, and we will bless candles on February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. So, if you have any candles you want to be blessed for the year, please bring them to one of the Masses either on Sunday or on Tuesday.

We will also bless throats next weekend at all the Masses and on February 3, as we remember Saint Blaise, Bishop, and Martyr.

From the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments

In light of the continuing health concerns caused by COVID-19, the Office of Sacred Worship would like to call your attention to the following liturgical instructions

Blessing of Throats on Saint Blaise Day (February 3)

The Office of Sacred Worship is instructing priests and deacons to give the prayer of blessing, without candles, as the final blessing for the Mass on February 3.

World Day of the Sick (February 11)

It is a tradition in many parishes to celebrate an annual anointing of the sick on February 11, or on the immediately preceding or following weekend.

As noted in the archdiocesan directives and mandates: Anyone over 60 years old and those with underlying health complications are encouraged to participate in Masses via livestream only. Since those to be anointed should avoid associating with others outside of their "bubble," the Office of Sacred Worship is instructing priests to arrange for in-home anointings this year. Of course, all necessary precautions and guidelines for anointing of the sick are to be followed, e.g., wearing of masks, use of hand sanitizer, no direct laying on of hands, application of Oil of the Sick using a cotton ball, etc.

ASH WEDNESDAY: Distribution of Ashes in Time of Pandemic

The Priest says the prayer for blessing the ashes. He sprinkles the ashes with holy water, without saying anything. Then he addresses all those present and only once says the formula as it appears in the Roman Missal, applying it to all in general: "Repent, and believe in the Gospel," or "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

The Priest then cleanses his hands, puts on a face mask and distributes the ashes to those who come to him or, if appropriate, he goes to those who are standing in their places. The Priest takes the ashes and sprinkles them
