Today's Gospel: Mk 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

The Lord upholds my life.

Holy Father's Intention for September: An Environmentally Sustainable Lifestyle

We pray that we all will make courageous choices for a simple and environmentally sustainable lifestyle, rejoicing in our young people who are resolutely committed to this.

From the Office of the Archdiocese of St. Louis:

Archdiocese of St. Louis Update Regarding COVID-19 Guidelines for Archdiocesan Schools

- To assist school families, students, leadership, faculties and staffs as they prepare for the 2021-22 academic year, and after reviewing the CDC's recent update to its guidance for schools, the Archdiocese of St. Louis is announcing an update regarding COVID-19 guidelines for archdiocesan schools. Beginning this upcoming academic year, the wearing of masks in archdiocesan schools will be optional and at the discretion of each individual family.
- The archdiocese urges all school families, students, leadership, faculties and staffs to be thoughtful of their own health—and that of their community—in all of their decisions, especially regarding the wearing of masks and monitoring for COVID-19 symptoms.
- The archdiocese strongly urges all eligible individuals in its school communities to receive the vaccine.

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette will preach the Annual Parish Mission Appeal

Having brought fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life—beginning at the La Salette shrine on France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation had always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Haiti, India, Madagascar, Myanmar, Tanzania, the Philippines and most recent, Mozambique. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor.

 Information on Speaker: Fr. Thomas Vellappalil, MS**

I was born in India, and spent the first four years after ordination working in the Philippines. I have been ministering in the USA for over 20 years; first I was in ministry of education and formation of seminarians and then in pastoral ministry. I am now Director of the La Salette Mission Center since January 2021, where my goal is to bring awareness of the universal church and raise funds for La Salette Missionaries working in poor and underdeveloped mission countries. It will be my pleasure to speak to you about the mission active of the Church and the La Salette Missionaries.

The Miracle Ear Foundation on September 25th at Busch Stadium:

My name is Gracie and I am with Miracle Ear over in Creve Coeur. I'm reaching out because I wanted to let you know about a huge event we're hosting for the Miracle Ear Foundation on September 25th at Busch Stadium. We're reaching out to those who would benefit from Hearing Care and Aids with us but might be having some issues with financing the need. The Foundation will be providing the hearing aids for free for all of our patients who qualify and we'd love to set you up with the opportunity to benefit from this event. This is a one day event at Busch Stadium on 9/25, we're waiving the $150 application fees that day so it's entirely free, the hearing aids come with the lifetime warranty and service like every other plan. There will be some entertainment and light refreshments and some local celebrities in attendance. It's all to promote the Miracle Ear Foundation and help all of those patients who we haven't been able to help previously. You may register online at miracleearmission.org OR if you have any questions please reach out so we can better assist. Thank you so much, have a wonderful weekend! Gracie Schofield, FOA.

Catechetical Sunday (Sep 19):

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 19, 2021, and the theme is: "Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed." Those who the parish community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry.

Thank You:

On behalf of the Viet Nam Conference of Catholic Bishops, we would like to express our gratitude toward Fr. John Khien Mai & brothers & sisters of Resurrection Our Lord Parish for your generous gift. We received $ 5,000 USD from Fr. Khien Mai Luu, SVD for our brothers and sisters in Vietnam who are suffering by pandemic of Covid-19.

May the Loving God bless you all.

Fr. Joseph Vu Nguyen Dao

Second Collection:

We will have a Second Collection on this Sunday for La Salette Mission Center. Please be generous!
