Today's Gospel: Lk 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Holy Father's Intention for January: For true human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This week the Church celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This feast is a bridge between Christmas and Ordinary Time. It is both the conclusion of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. With Jesus Baptism, God's action and presence among us are revealed in Christ. The hidden years of his life come to an end, and his public ministry begins. On this feast, we are reminded that at the time of our own Baptism, we were adopted as beloved daughters and sons of God. In Baptism we are called to follow in Jesus' footsteps to love God and neighbor with all our being. What an awesome conclusion to the Christmas Season!

Second Collection: On next Sunday we will have a second collection for St. Louis Review Subscription. Please be prepared!
