Today's Gospel: Lk 11: 1-13

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test." And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.' Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA):

Each year, Catholics across the Archdiocese of St. Louis unite through the ACA. The Appeal supports the life and mission of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, serving those in need. Last year, our parish contributed $14,885. Eventually, only 31% of our families participated in the program. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski asks us to extend our hands and hearts in helping to promote the good works of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please take the cards with names of the head of the family, fill out some details, and return it with your donations from 04/24 until 12th of September 2022.

How to Know You're a Christian: In our world today, we have a lot of confused people, confused about who they are. We have men thinking that they are women and vice versa. We have the majority of Americans thinking they're Christians, but many do not even know how to become one according to the Bible.

In this message, we look at what Jesus himself said about becoming His disciple or follower. It was not as easy as what some of the people thought. Learn some of the shocking statements Jesus made about being His disciple, a Christian.

Note: Fr. Peter De Ta Vo, SVD will be out of town on Tuesday July 26, 2022 about two weeks. Fr. Francis Binh Thanh Nguyen, SVD will come to help our Parish.
