Today's Gospel: Lk 12: 13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA):

Each year, Catholics across the Archdiocese of St. Louis unite through the ACA. The Appeal supports the life and mission of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, serving those in need. Last year, our parish contributed $14,885. Eventually, only 31% of our families participated in the program. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski asks us to extend our hands and hearts in helping to promote the good works of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please take the cards with names of the head of the family, fill out some details, and return it with your donations from 04/24 until 12th of September 2022.

Is Jesus the Only Way? Most people believe in a God who created the universe. Yet there are differences in opinion as to how one can know this creator God. These differences of opinion have led to the formation of many religions around the world. How can we know which one is correct or are they all ways to God?

The question of how a person can know God is important both for this life and for eternity. One must know God in order to have eternal life and spend eternity with Him in heaven.
