Today's Gospel: Lk 12: 35-40

Jesus said to his disciples: "Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have the servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Holy Father's Intention for August: Small Businesses

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA):

Each year, Catholics across the Archdiocese of St. Louis unite through the ACA. The Appeal supports the life and mission of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, serving those in need. Last year, our parish contributed $14,885. Eventually, only 31% of our families participated in the program. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski asks us to extend our hands and hearts in helping to promote the good works of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please take the cards with names of the head of the family, fill out some details, and return it with your donations from 04/24 until 12th of September 2022.

Is Jesus the Only Way? Most people believe in a God who created the universe. Yet there are differences in opinion as to how one can know this creator God. These differences of opinion have led to the formation of many religions around the world. How can we know which one is correct or are they all ways to God?

The question of how a person can know God is important both for this life and for eternity. One must know God in order to have eternal life and spend eternity with Him in heaven.
