Today's Gospel: Lk 17: 5-10 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Holy Father's Intention for October:

A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

Holy Hour for vocations: Holy hour for priestly and religious vocations will take place from 7-8 pm on Friday, Oct 7 at the Monastery of St. Clare, 200 Marycrest Drive in south St. Louis County. The monastery is located off Telegraph Road, next to the Goddard School.

Respect Life Convention: The 46th annual Respect Life Convention will be held Saturday, Oct. 15, at the Sheraton Westport Chalet Hotel in Maryland Heights. The convention will begin at 10:30 am with a panel discussion on "Walking with Families in a Post-Dobbs World," followed by the keynote address and awards luncheon. There will be an afternoon breakout session, followed by a Vigil Mass at 4:15 pm. Celebrated by Auxiliary Bishop Mark S. Rivituso. For more information: prolife@archstl.org or 314-792-7555
