Today's Gospel: Lk 14: 25-33 Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.' Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Holy Father's Intention for September:

Abolition of the Death Penalty

We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA):

Each year, Catholics across the Archdiocese of St. Louis unite through the ACA. The Appeal supports the life and mission of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, serving those in need. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski asks us to extend our hands and hearts in the good works of the Annual Catholic Appeal. We have one more week to participate in this year ACA which will end on 12th of September 2022. Thanks.

Beware of False Teachers:

Why should you be concerned with false teachers? Because false teachers are all around you and can ruin your life. A false teacher teaches things that are not true, they are lies. If a person believes those lies, he will bear the negative consequences.

False teachers are in the media, in the schools, in the government and in businesses. Our country is in trouble because of the rapid expansion of false teaching. Since false teaching is so rampant, it is difficult for many to recognize it.

Jesus warned about false prophets in Matthew 7:15 "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves." This verse shows us that false teachers/prophets are dangerous and that they are not easy to detect.

Beware of False Teachers will help you study the teaching of Jesus on recognizing false teachers and false teaching. One of the best ways to recognize false teaching is to learn from true biblical teaching.

Labor Day Message:

"This Labor Day, let us reflect on how we can build a more just economy by promoting the welfare of working families through both charitable works and through advocacy for improved policies such as expanding the Child Tax Credit and passing the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act. Advancing these two policies would have a profound impact on family stability, especially for families who are financially vulnerable," said Archbishop Coakley of Oklahoma City, Chairman, Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development.

Second Collection: Today we have a Second Collection for the Catholic University of America. Please be generous!

HAPPY LABOR DAY TO ALL!
