Today's Gospel: Jn 1:1-5, 9-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God. And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

Holy Father's Intention for December: Volunteer Not-for-Profit Organizations
We pray that volunteer non-profit organizations committed to human development find people dedicated to the common good and ceaselessly seek out new paths to international cooperation.

What is the true meaning of Christmas? At Christmas time, it's so easy to get caught up in the season that we forget the true meaning of Christmas. It's good to enjoy family, gift giving, Christmas trees and cookies. Yet, what we celebrate at Christmas is not just the birth of another baby. It was something far more profound and mind boggling.

Jesus, the Son of God, who created the universe and ruled with God in heaven chose to come to earth and become human.

Philippians 2:6-7 (ESV) who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.

The baby Jesus who took his first breath 2000 years ago was fully God and fully human, one of a kind. He chose to leave heaven and His divine attributes and live on earth as a human, fully dependent on the Holy Spirit. He showed us how to live in the power of the Spirit and is our example in every dimension.

Jesus came into the world on a rescue mission, to save us from sin and our enemy Satan, so that we could become children of God.

Merry Christmas 2022 and Happy New Year 2023: May God bless you and your family with peace, love, and joy during this Holy Christmas Season, and may your New Year be filled with happiness, longevity, and prosperity!

Second Collection: Today Dec. 25, 2022, there is a Second Collection for Kenrich Glennon Seminary. This collection will help the education of seminarians to become priests. Please be generous!
